Lightworker Healing Protocol: for Spirit Removal and Rescue, Energetic Rebalancing, Karmic Repair, and Distance Healing

Karl Mollison

The Call to Love

"As long as humans feel oppressed and feel subjugated they will need an oppressor to satisfy that choice. So, this is the time of choosing. Do you choose oppression or do you choose freedom? Do you choose complacency and surrender or do you choose to express and feel the power of love, and have the courage to stand up and allow the expression of love from your heart to go forth to all around you, friend and foe alike? This is not a call to battle, per se. This is a call to love, to universal love, to unconditional love, to the expression and outpouring of love in all ways, in all situations, in all circumstances, for this will have the power to humble and vanquish any foe, for the oppressor can only subjugate those in fear and those who do not understand who they truly are." Albert Einstein (Channeled 1-25-15)

Guarantee of Protection for Practitioners

Can you give some words of reassurance for my students about possible risks to them of doing spirit releasement work; will they be protected by the divine realm?

"Without exception, we can pledge to you and anyone who follows in your footsteps that if they work from their heart in helping others and work to remove this menace they will be protected as you have been protected and will be kept safe under all circumstances, and your involvement and identity shielded, and your personal safety and physical being and the safety of your loved ones as well will be under divine watch and is guaranteed." Archangel Jophiel

What reassurances can I give my students learning to use my Lightworker Healing Protocol that they will be safe from reprisals by extraterrestrials or dark spirits?

"We had declared before through Archangel Jophiel that all your students who follow in your footsteps will be divinely guided and will divinely protected, and this has been guaranteed. We stand behind this guarantee, the only caveat being the human can tear up the contract. So this is a potential pitfall in all human undertaking. To truly understand their reach, and their power, and their absolute control of things, is a necessity and can enable them to stand strong because they are the powerful ones and are not weaklings, as many fear. All that is required is to understand your greatness, and your power, and to assume the support is a birthright, and this will go a long way to ensure it is implemented as described, and you will have many joys from your successes in not only helping people but receiving many positive karmic returns in the future." Learn How to do Spirit Removal and Rescue, Energetic Rebalancing, Karmic Repair, and Distance Healing in One Comprehensive Session

Instructor: Karl Mollison

Are you here for a purpose?

Would you like to help others but don't know how? Now, you can help yourself, your extended family, and even reach out to the world's trouble spots to bring more light, working on your own from the comfort of your favorite armchair!

The advanced Lightworker Healing Protocol we have used to help people around the world has been optimized and streamlined for universal use by anyone wanting to heal others. The process is divinely guided and supported by working directly with Source Creator to follow a detailed Protocol that literally covers all the bases, every source of negativity that can impair a person physically, mentally, emotionally, or spiritually.

It builds on our knowledge of multiple healing modalities but extends their capabilities significantly. Best of all, you don't have to learn how to do them, you just learn how to request them. The divine realm does the heavy lifting. Advanced techniques we were taught by channeling the divine realm to request include Soul Reawakening, Quantum Healing, Soul Matrix Healing, and repairing the connection to the Higher Self. We empower the spirit guides and Higher Self of the client to do daily trauma resolution and self-limiting belief replacements with Creator's help. The inclusion of these and other steps make this Protocol's effectiveness among the top healers worldwide.

You don't necessarily have to hang out a shingle and attract clients to help the planet. We show you how to reach out through your nonlocal consciousness to anyone, anywhere, anytime, and deliver powerful healing remotely. You can help those in need anonymously and it's ethical and safe. We explain why working through Creator ensures it's done gently, below the recipient's conscious awareness, and with their soul's permission.

Everyone has karmic past, and present life issues needing healing, and this karma is the cause of 94% of physical illness, and many emotional problems causing troubled relationships and unhappiness. More than a third of people we work on even have an ancestral curse still running that undermines them, and practitioners of the dark arts are present everywhere and causing real trouble for their victims.

Most healers are unaware that nine out of ten people also have spirit attackers undermining them, and healers appealing to Archangel Michael or Creator to remove spirit attachments or curses don't know many attackers have a karmic tie to the host that must be healed before the divine realm will act. We will teach you how the Protocol removes high-level psychic attacks, like curses, and advanced techniques for karmic repair of past lives. We reveal surprising statistics showing the true source of common problems caused by dark spirit attachments. They're all things you can help. Spirit meddlers cause 90% of crime, 59% of mental illness, including 100% of psychoses like schizophrenia, and all the personality disorders.

These are just the extreme consequences of spirit meddlers attempting to close off the connection to the higher self, so you can imagine the many milder emotional issues attributable to this menace, like causing 76% of divorces. They attack children early and often, causing colic in babies, night terrors, chronic bedwetting, stuttering, and sleepwalking. They cause bullying, fears, and also interfere with memory to impede learning in kids, causing school non-performance and dropout. In adults, they undermine relationships and wreck careers. We give the facts and figures to show what's behind human problems.

What impact can you have?

The Protocol is designed to be truly comprehensive in covering all potential sources of negativity and discord in need of healing for all possible targets relevant to human well-being. Each single session is applied to include not only human subjects and their loved ones (as well as the practitioner), but companion animals, important locations such as homes, schools, workplaces and prisons, lost soul human spirits of the departed to help them cross over to the Light, and extends to all perpetrators in spirit or physical form, including negative extraterrestrials, the whole of Gaia, the sun, and the solar system.

The best part is that, in short, we have figured out the key to empower prayer requests that will be effective for the entirety of humanity and everything affecting us, directly and indirectly. Whatever your level of experience, you can follow this procedure and get results. If you are an intuitive, you will get lots of feedback. If you are a novice, doing sessions with our Protocol will develop your intuition as part of the process.

The best part is, we request that healing sessions be re-launched again and again, throughout the current life as well as future incarnations. This is the key to healing very deep issues. We even ask that a session be done for the the clients at the time of their passing to ensure they reach the light and don't become an earthbound spirit.

Can anyone really do this?

Our prerecorded sound files will guide you through our up-to-date Protocol, giving you the precise wording you need for each step. You simply express the thoughts you're given. It's simple. The divine realm has given us the tools to partner with Creator and know what to ask for to get results. You don't need to be psychic. All you need are belief in the divine and in your worthiness to get divine assistance.

We will teach you a way to test for the presence of issues in your target, get definitive answers from Source Creator about what's needed, and obtain accurate quantitative information even if you see, hear, or feel nothing happening intuitively. Our prerecorded sound files guide you through our up-to-date Protocol, giving you the precise wording you need for each step.

You will be taught precise techniques for healing the world's problems at their source and speeding the shift in consciousness leading to Ascension. You will learn the reasons why healing is often blocked and what to do about it, causes of common health issues you can address that are still unknown to science, unique and exciting applications of channeling, even what to do about extraterrestrial, extragalactic and interdimensional manipulation. We constantly seek information that is new to the planet, so even advanced healers will benefit from this course.

You can choose how you serve:

In addition to safely helping people who are simply unhappy, troubled, have school, career, or relationship problems, or are chronically ill, mentally disturbed, criminals, or terrorists, you can rescue troubled and harmful spirits from their dilemma. Many companion animals have spirit attachments and karmic issues, affecting their behavior or health, just like people, and they are included in the Protocol.

Haunted locations are common, and cause stress to human inhabitants and economic loss. There are many similarities between locations and people, as there can be spirits present and karmic issues as well. The land has a soul, and there may be significant healing needs that people can sense as "darkness" or an unhappy feel. Our Protocol covers all the issues needing to be addressed for locations.

In addition, the archangels tell us that 30-40% of people are lost souls who may not transition fully. We have used our Protocol to rescue spirits of many earthbound celebrities, including Marilyn Monroe, Judy Garland, Robin Williams, Cary Grant, Princess Diana, and Jackie Kennedy, all of whom failed to reach the light on their own.

We cannot over-emphasize that all human suffering in both the physical and spirit realms is caused by karma, and the divine realm will not interfere unless asked directly for specific help by a human. None of these famous people were yet in the light, although undoubtedly many appeals had been made to God, Archangel Michael, Jesus, etc., by lightworkers to request their safe transition, not to mention their own cries for help.

In each case, what was holding them back included things in our Protocol no one had yet addressed, like karmic contracts, thought forms, and extraterrestrial spirits. We channeled them to find out what they were feeling, but it was our Protocol that got them to the light after becoming earthbound and suffering, for as long as 62 years. Using our Protocol, you could have done this, too.

Think about it. Everyone has karmic issues and past trauma needing to be resolved. About 90% have one or more spirit attachments needing removal. Approximately 44% of all households in the United States have a dog, and 35% have a cat. In addition to the possible health problems of companion animals, 75% have spirit attachments bothering them. Many locations are haunted, causing distress or economic loss. One out of three people's loved ones who have passed on, are currently stuck in limbo and have not reached the light. There is no end of potential clients for these services.

Two more reasons to join the team:

When channeling Source Creator and asking for an update of the original Ten Commandments, we were given Ten Divine Principles for Living (available as a free download on our website). Number Nine is: "Healing and repair is the highest of priorities for the self, as no one else can see to this. It must come from within each person as a desire and a commitment to make the investment, to guarantee a happy future."

This fits right in with other Divine Principles, which tell us to uplift the self, and safeguard one's soul. You will receive healing in parallel with each session of the Protocol as the first request is that the self (practitioner) be included along with other targets. So you will get repeated healing done personally, with each new session you conduct.

The Tenth Divine Principle is: “Honor the need of others to have healing and to see their plight, in part, as your responsibility and obligation as a fellow human, so you are sympathetic, and supportive, and understanding of the importance for them to have a pathway to healing in order to make up for losses and wounds to their soul, as all will be harmed when one suffers...” So, healing the self and others is not only desirable, but a duty and an obligation. There’s no better way to do both, than to be a practitioner of the Lightworker Healing Protocol.

Training Materials:

In addition to the 210-page course manual which will be mailed to you (now available to non-US residents, where conditions apply), as well as a downloadable PDF file, you will have on-line access to 24 hours of training videos containing supplementary material and case study examples. With that in-depth information resource, you will have the benefit of our many years of experience. You will also be able to download sound recordings of Protocol prompts. We are currently hosting free monthly LHP practitioner webinars to discuss use of the Protocol and share new insights.

Our Protocols are ever- evolving and we support our students when Protocol updates occur, by allowing them free access to descriptions of the changes and free downloadable manual updates. You will also be able to get new matching sound recordings of audio prompts for the Protocols, which will be downloadable at no cost. Any future versions of the printed manual will be available at cost of printing and shipping.

Practitioner Certification and Instructor Certification:

Because humanity is in dire need of this spreading around the world, we are happy to offer Certification of practitioners, which many people appreciate as an added indication of proficiency and thoroughness of training. It means we stand behind you. We only require a written application, some documented evidence of experience with the Protocol, completion of a self-administered multiple choice test (open book) to show that you have learned the important principles, and a signed agreement attesting that you understand and will adhere to our policies and ethical standards.

In addition, we encourage all who master the material to become teachers, giving training workshops locally. This is a win-win, as it can be a nice source of revenue for you, in addition to the good it brings to your students and all whom they help subsequently. To foster this, we offer Instructor Certification and you will have access to details about the requirements when you become a trainee. We also make our teaching materials available to our Certified Instructors.

Testimonials from Grateful Clients Helped by Our Protocol:

Here is feedback from just three of many clients you will find on the Testimonials page of our website: www.TeamArchangel.com.

"Dear Karl,

Thank you again for working with our family so quickly. Interestingly enough, walking home the day after you did the work, I felt a sense of clearness. I have walked the kids the same way home for 6 years now and yet the walk felt different in a way I can't explain. Good different, like a new awareness. My daughter came home so excited to show me this new math she learned, partial products method--something that I was never taught as a kid and to me is very cumbersome, yet she breezed through it like she knew it before. She is currently being tutored for math and reading to catch up with classmates.

My daughter came home again today showing me more math problems, learning on the first try. Before this she struggled horribly, we tried everything to get her interested in learning or extra special learning tools to practice. She is bright and cheerful and so happy! Words cannot describe my happiness for her.

My husband, Max, does not yet know of the gift he has received from you. I noticed today he is very grateful and loving to our children--not that he wasn't loving before, he just never showed it outwardly. He must have told our children "I love you" five times today---completely out of the blue. Normally it might be at night before bed if at all. It was his tone too, that struck me as so different; it was meant with love.

We will continue to embrace the positive changes and thank you again for your time and sharing your wisdom with us. Please feel free to share any of this. Everyone deserves to feel this good.

Thanks again so much, it is such a relief!" [Name withheld.]

"Dear Karl,

Thanks for taking care of my (22 month old) son so promptly.

Two weekends ago my wife and I went to a gym that allows us to drop off our son for up to 2 hours while we work out. After our workout, when we picked him up we learned from the caregivers that he was attempting to scratch, bite other children, and push over stand-alone toys in the play area. He was out-of-control pretty much. When we brought him home and fed him, he looked to the right and up at "something" and was scared-looking. At that point I knew he was being influenced by something evil and I decided to enlist your help.

Fast forward to this last weekend....We dropped him off at the same play area and he started to cry when I left. When I returned, I got a glowing report of how nice of a child he was, playing with the other kids and toys peacefully! The lady remembered him from the week before and asked what we did to make him so calm and good. I just smiled and thanked the Creator and you for the work you do to help the innocent. I just hope he's not permanently damaged by the spirit meddlers...but as you mentioned, with lots of love and time he'll heal from this experience. Thanks," [Name withheld.]

"Dear Karl,

Following is my statement of your spirit clearing on my daughter: She suffered from depression (diagnosed) for about 5 years, and several years prior to that which went undiagnosed. Starting in the 6th grade she slowly removed herself from most of her friends, fun activities and her zest for life diminished.

By the time she was 13 she battled regular thoughts of suicide and we sought medical/psychological treatment. Unfortunately, this was just a temporary bandaid. Even with medication and support she was uninterested in life.

After my life-changing session with you in January 2014, I realized my daughter may also be suffering from a serious negative energy. About two weeks after your clearing I started to notice changes; she smiled a bit more, came out of her room more and seemed to enjoy little things again.

*It's now been seven months and I am so ecstatic to say, she has not had any bouts of suicidal thoughts, is dating a very nice young man, looking forward to college next fall, has a part-time job, is getting good grades and taking part in her wonderful life!!!
THANK YOU FOR SAVING MY DAUGHTER'S LIFE!" [Name withheld]*
